○ Title: Open Design Competition for the Jeonnam Citizen's Square

○ Name: Woohyun Yang  (Signature)

RANK	ENTRIES NUMBER	Detail
1 st Winner	51	The design theme is very clear and persuasive, but lots of trees are planned as much not to ensure flexibility or adaptability in use.
2 nd Winner	108	Too many design elements (such as solar cell, pool, falls, and etc.) are applied to organize the place, and they prevent the formative completeness.
3 rd Winner	45	The idea of dividing the peripheral corridor and inside is good and simple for practical uses. However, the inside is not so much organized spatially enough to guarantee an easy recognition.
3 rd Winner	97	The functional mega-building in the south is a great idea to define the plaza as it is, as well as prevent a bad view to the road in the south and the noise. The suggested urban farm may be workable considering the regional characteristics.
